

---

Boos & Brews Haunted Tours Back for Another Summer on Huguenot Street

NEW PALTZ, NY (June 28, 2021) – Each Friday and Saturday night in July at Historic Huguenot Street, creep it real with some of New Paltz’s most chilling legends - from macabre tales of murder, to fascinating folklore, to stories of visitations from those beyond the grave. The wickedly popular Boos & Brews tours are back for another summer on the street, this year with an added night each week.

Visitors will explore the legendary street, peer into the darkened windows, and enter the original burial ground - if they dare! For those dying to have some fun, don’t worry – the guides will keep visitors laughing til' they're coffin. And for those in need of some liquid courage, each ticket entitles visitors to a glass of locally crafted hard cider, beer, or a bottle of water. Additional beverages can be purchased to help warm up what's sure to be a chilling evening.

$15 General Admission

$12 Discounted Admission (For HHS members, seniors, students, active military members, and veterans.)

Tours start at 7:30 PM. The purchase of a ticket includes one glass of locally crafted beer or hard cider, or one complimentary bottle of water. Additional beverages may be purchased.

Register online at <https://www.huguenotstreet.org/calendar-of-events/boos-brews-2021>.

All ticket sales are final and nonrefundable.

This program is made possible by the New York State Council on the Arts with the support of Governor Andrew M. Cuomo and the New York State Legislature.

About Historic Huguenot Street

A National Historic Landmark District, Historic Huguenot Street is a 501(c)3 non-profit that encompasses 30 buildings across 10 acres comprising the heart of the original 1678 New Paltz settlement, including seven stone houses dating to the early eighteenth century. Historic Huguenot Street was founded in 1894 as the Huguenot Patriotic, Historical, and Monumental Society to preserve the nationally acclaimed collection of stone houses. Since then, Historic Huguenot Street has grown into an innovative museum, chartered as an educational corporation by the University of the State of New York Department of Education that is dedicated to preserving a unique Hudson Valley Huguenot settlement and engaging diverse audiences in the exploration of America's multicultural past in order to understand the historical forces that have shaped America.

###

Frances Vigna
Marketing & Communications Coordinator
frances@huguenotstreet.org
(845) 255-1660 Ext. 102